TODAY'S SONG

Wait 'til the Sun Shines, Nellie

Wait till the sun shines, Nellie, and the gray skies turn to blue.

You know I love you, Nellie, 'deed I do.
We'll face the years together, sweethearts you and I.

Wait till the sun shines, Nellie,
bye and bye.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Cliff Brock

PEconomic benefits of higher education

Cliff Brock is a retired educator who has been a Rotarian for 15 years. During his working years, he taught college and university journalism and advertising and published widely in the early use of computers in newspaper operation. Later, he was a college and university administrator, serving for five years as dean of acaademic instruction at ICC. In 1999, he was named president of Bainbridge College in the University System of Georgia and retired as the president of Barstow College in California in 2009. He is currently an adjunct associate professor of management communications for Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

Cliff serves on Mayor Jack Reed's Jobs and Economic Development Task Force on which he heads the Aggregating Job Notices sub-committee.

His Rotary work included editing the Bainbridge Club newsletter and serving on the membership committee. In California, he was chair of the International Committee and host chair of the Group Study Exchange in 2007. He chaired the international committee and served on the board and was vice president elect when he moved to Tupelo.
