TODAY'S SONG >>

Wait 'til the Sun Shines, Nellie

Wait till the sun shines, Nellie, and the gray skies turn to blue.

You know I love you, Nellie, 'deed I do.

We'll face the years together, sweethearts you and I.

Wait till the sun shines, Nellie,
bye and bye.

In Walter's Honor

Tommie Bourland, widow of Walter Bourland, speaks with Rotary Club of Tupelo president Lee Rogers following last week's meeting. Tommie was on hand to receive a posthumous Paul Harris Fellowship given in memory of Walter. Bourland had a significant impact on the Rotary Club during the course of his membership.

TODAY'S PROGRAM >>

Chuck Kellum

CSG Data Networks, and one of our newest club members

Chuck is a native of Shannon and a graduate of Mississippi State University. As a commissioned officer in the Air Force, he served in many locations, including Washington DC, Maryland, Texas, Ohio, and Idaho. He recently moved back to the Tupelo area from New Orleans.

He is currently working in Tupelo for CSG Data Networks, the company that engineered and currently maintains the wireless network in Amory. CSG provides network engineering, information security services and technology support for Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, South Carolina and Louisiana. They have successfully completed huge, city-wide projects nationwide and are partnered with Cisco and other leading edge companies.

Chuck's background in law enforcement and computer crime has enabled him to speak often on the subject of online predators and Internet safety. He has trained hundreds of law enforcement agents in computer forensics and computer security. Overall, he has over 20 years experience in networking and other computer-related research. He lives in Tupelo with his wife and three daughters.

RYLC attendee thanks club for opportunity

Dear Rotary Club,

It is with much appreciation in mind that I thank you for sponsoring me at the Rotary Youth Leadership Conference this past weekend. I find it hard to articulate how valuable the experience and information is that I gained from attending the conference. I learned much about leadership roles, differing personalities, and first appearances. Again, I would like to thank the club for sponsoring me at this event, especially Mr. Waters and Mr. Hilbun for transporting us to and from the conference.

Sincerely, Andrew Spearman
