Don't Fence Me In

Oh, give me land, lots of land under starry skies above, don't fence me in.
Let me ride through the wide open country that I love, don't fence me in.
Let me be by myself in the evening breeze, listen to the murmur of the cottonwood trees.
Send me off forever, but I ask you, please, don't fence me in.

Drive to end polio gets huge boost from WHO

The drive to eradicate polio will have the full operational power of the World Health Organization behind it, WHO Director-General Margaret Chan announced at the RI Convention in Los Angeles last week.

Stressing that polio is in retreat, Chan assured Rotarians of her personal commitment to eradication, and urged them to continue the fight.
