TODAY'S SONG

Give My Regards to Broadway

Give my regard to Broadway; Remember me to Herald Square.
Tell all the gang at Forty-Second Street that I will soon be there.
Whisper of how I'm yearning to mingle with the old time throng.
Give my regards to old Broadway,
and say that I'll be there e're long.

PASSING THE GAVEL

Last week marked the changing of leadership in the Rotary Club of Tupelo. Outgoing President Lee Rogers, right, ceremoniously hands the gavel over to incoming president Wayne Scoville. Rogers expounded upon the work and success of the club during the past year, and Scoville discussed his goals for the coming club year.

WORTH REPEATING

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Robby Parman

Apilachi District Executive, Boy Scouts of America

Robby Parman is the Apilachi District Executive for the Boy Scouts of America, serving Lee and Itawamba counties.

Parman graduated from Mississippi State University with a degree in social work. He worked for 2 1/2 years with the Mississippi Department of Human Services in Prentiss County, and left there to help start the Boys and Girls Club of Booneville. He worked as unit director for five years, with the organization serving more than 150 youth on a yearly basis. It was during his time with the Boys and Girls Club that he gained experience with the Boy Scouts.

Parman worked for MSC Industrial Supplies briefly after leaving the Boys and Girls Club, but soon after assumed his duties with the Boy Scouts.

Parman lives in Tupelo with his wife, Colleen, who is a 10th grade teacher at Tupelo High School.
