The 4-Way Test

Can we say that it's the Truth, And Fair to all concerned?
Will it serve to build good will, And better friendships earn?
If it's beneficial, too,
and we're sure that we've done our best,
Then we'll know that we in Rotary will have met the 4-Way Test.

OLE MISS UPDATE

Pete Boone, Director of Athletics for The University of Mississippi, center, gave Tupelo Rotarians an update on the state of the athletics department and programs at the university. Boone spoke on such things as plans for the "indoor" basketball practice facility and the sales of season football tickets. Shown with Boone are Rotary Club of Tupelo President Jim Diffe, left, and outgoing member Jillian Foster, who will be transferring to an Oxford club.

Lindsay Blaire Beeman

District 6800 Ambassadorial Scholar

Lindsay Blaire Beeman grew up in Tupelo, the daughter of Kenn and Mary Jo Beeman. In 2003, she graduated from Tupelo High School, and in 2007 graduated from The Sally McDonnell Barksdale Honors College and the Croft Institute for International Studies at Ole Miss with a degree in International Studies and French and a minor in Spanish. She pursued a career in international relations and has been working with The International Education Ex-change, an international development organization based in Greenwich, Connecticut.

This year, Lindsay Blaire will be a Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar to Geneva, Switzerland where she will pursue a Masters of Advanced Studies in Humanitarian Action through a joint program of The University of Geneva and The Graduate Institute for International and Development Studies.
